Technion Summer Program & Internship
Choose from a variety of Technion courses, study with renowned faculty alongside Israeli and international peers, earn credits, and gain valuable work experience, and get a taste of student life in Israel at Technion – Israel’s top-ranked science and technology global research university.

Courses are offered in a wide range of fields:

- Architecture: Introduction to Multidisciplinary Architectural Conservation; Architectural Sketching
- Basic Science: Linear Algebra; Calculus 1; Physics 1; Chemistry
- Biomedical: Biomedical-Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Entrepreneurship: Organizations & Entrepreneurship (Introduction to Entrepreneurship); Project in Entrepreneurship and Managerial Negotiation
- Humanities: Archeology and History in the Holy Land; Introduction to Israeli Culture
- Medicine: Becoming a Doctor; Human Sexuality

Opening of any course is dependent on registration of a minimum of 8 students

Professional Internships (for credit) are directed work-study experiences that may be taken at high-tech or engineering companies in industry sectors common to the Israeli economy.

Research and Professional Internships (for credit) can start as early as June 1st.

Extracurricular activities:
You will be invited to participate in social and cultural activities, lectures and trips, to enrich your study abroad experience.

Admissions & Fees
Students with a GPA of 80/3.0 and above are invited to apply.

- Tuition: $1,800 (USD) per class
- $3,500 (USD) for 2 classes | $4,500 (USD) for Internship + 1 course
- Housing: $650 (USD) per month

Academic classes: June-July, 2016

Please note: internships are taken over a period of at least 8 weeks